

Senior Commercial Band

Mr. Scott Simons, Director

Hub City Vinyl

Hagerstown, Maryland

February 16, 2025 | 2:00 pm

The All State Senior Commercial Band is a flexibly instrumented ensemble incorporating music from a variety of genres. The members of the ensemble collaborated with the director and ensemble manager to focus the setlist and part assignments in preparation for today's performance. This ensemble provides students a platform to perform commercial/popular music at an All State level.

Mr. Scott Simons - Director

Scott Simons' voice has been heard by nearly every kid as the voice of "Paw Patrol". After receiving his BA in Music Composition from West Virginia University, Scott spent 10 years fronting original indie-pop band The Argument which was named as one of the "Top 10 Unsigned Bands in America" by the AMAs. In 2008, Scott moved to LA to work as a writer, performer and recording artist. "LA Winter" was sampled by Wiz Khalifa and "Faithful" was a Latin American hit with pop artist Alex Hoyer. Other songs have been featured in "NBA on TNT" spots and his song with DJ group Daddy's Groove "Stellar" hit #1 on European Dance Music charts. Scott has worked for 15 seasons on America's Got Talent as Assistant Music Director and as Music Director for Little Big Shots and acts such as K-POP global sensation New Jeans. He has played for Idina Menzel and Leona Lewis. Scott's project TeamMate has toured the US supporting OneRepublic, Bleachers and Skylar Grey and has been featured in many media outlets. Their music has been heard in commercials and shows. Scott currently guest lectures, serves as a mentor at WVU and has taught songwriting in LA schools.
